

Disposal of Electronic Waste

From 1 July 2019 the Victorian Government is banning all e-waste from landfill. This means that e-waste will not be allowed in the landfill bin.

We have arranged a free electronic waste recycling service provided by the Melbourne City Council. An E-waste bin is now placed in the Bin room to recycle electronic / electrical items, household batteries and power cords.

What will be accepted

- Televisions
- Monitors
- Desktop computers
- Laptop computers
- Printers
- Photocopiers
- Servers
- Network equipment
- Scanners
- Fax machines
- Electronic games
- Joysticks
- DVD and video players
- Speakers
- Sound equipment
- Household batteries
- All computer accessories such as keyboards, mouse, floppy disc and CD drives
- Electronic components such as circuit boards, motherboards, network and memory cards

- Mobile and landline phones and answering machines
- CDs, DVDs, videocassette and audio tapes
- Cameras, including digital, film and video cameras
- Household electrical appliances such as vacuum cleaners and hairdryers
- Kitchen appliances such as microwaves, toasters, kettles
- Other small appliances such as power tools
- Battery packs or rechargers for any electrical item
- Toner, printer or ink cartridges (must be separated from the printer)

What won't be accepted

- Smoke alarms
- Air conditioners
- Halogen lights
- X-ray equipment
- Chemicals
- Car and truck batteries
- White goods
- Compact fluorescent globes
- Fluorescent tubes
- Household paint
- Hazardous materials and medical equipment